WELCOME TO MY LIVING ROOM

CAFÉ WILLEM ALBERT

Café Willem Albert is the living room of the Groninger city where everyone is welcome and where it feels like home. With a broad, accessible menu we want to be able to serve everyone and to give the 'Dutch Cuisine' the recognition and appreciation back that it deserves. Hereby we use as much as possible regional products and ingredients from Dutch soil.

The heated terrace on the East wall has plenty of seats and a nice view over The Grote Markt. We also have a cozy terrace on The Nieuwe Markt where you can sit comfortably and 'watch people walk by'.

WILLEM ALBERT SCHOLTEN

A man of vision and ambition. Of daring and deed. A great Groninger with a name of fame, which was later high jacked by grief. With his dozens of factories, he was the first real agricultural industrial and multinational. A man who with ornate letters, wrote Groninger and Dutch history.

A real entrepreneur who got the Holland-America line back on steam and grew up far beyond our country borders with the Groningse "Just be normal"- mentality. A benefactor who meant a lot to Groningen and even gave our city a children's hospital on his 70th birthday.

He deserves a spot in the city. Centrally located in Groningen, in the middle of his townspeople. It is an honor that we may wear his name and write it with pride.

FORUM GRONINGEN

Forum Groningen opened the doors on the 29th of November in 2019. The building is part of the renovation of the east side of the Grote Markt, the main square of the city. Several buildings have been demolished behind the east wall of The Market Hotel and created a new square with terraces. This square was given the name: Nieuwe Markt.

The Forum is intended as a general meeting place for residents and visitors of the city Groningen. This quickly became the living room of Groningen. Below the Forum is a new parking garage with space for 390 cars and 1500 bicycles in the basement. On top of the Forum there is a nice view over the center of the city. There are also various activities present within the building, such as exhibitions, talks and movies. There is also a library located in the Forum.

Forum Groningen is the tourist office of Groningen with the Groningen store.

MARTINI TOWER

The Martini tower, also called in Groningen d'Olle Grieze is the best known association that the Dutch people have with the city of Groningen. This tower has survived a fire and lightning strike for the past 500 years. The tower almost collapsed, but survived the wars, and with her 97 meters it is still the tallest building in the city.

D'Olle Grieze has almost 300 steps, where the visitor after all those steps will be rewarded with a nice view of the façade of the Martini church, the ancient ornaments, the very heavy bells and the giant flagpoles. All the way at the top, at the clockwork attic, is the breathtaking view over the city and the surrounding countryside.

In 2019 the Martini tower has undergone a major makeover, what caused an increase in visitors. The renovation has made it a real experience to climb the tower. For example, the tower has a cinema at 45 meters above the ground where a 10-minute video will be shown about the history of Groningen.

EXPERIENCE GRONINGEN

PEAT COLONIAL MUSEUM

The peat colonial museum tells the story of the development of the Groninger peat colonies. Not only does this story go about the peat, but also about inland vessels, kilometers of canals and industry of potato starch and straw cardboard in the 19th century. The rich history of the Groningen peat colonials is connected by water, captains, farmers and manufacturers. It is the region where, for example, Willem Albert Scholten, the first multinational of Europe and founder of various companies, was born and raised. In addition to these permanent exhibition, the museum also shows interesting temporary exhibitions.

The VVV Groningen offers a diversity of city walks. These city walks do not require a guide which gives you the freedom to choose a city walk in accordance with your interests and wishes. For example, you can discover the city center in one day. This walk leads you along the highlights from downtown. If you are more interested in art and culture, then there is also a perfect walk for it. This walk takes you along the arts architecture and museums. Finally, you can also choose a walk that focuses on Groningen, a quirky trading center. Old trade routes, warehouses and quaint shops are all part of this route.

He deserves a spot in the City. Central in Groningen, amongst his "stadgers", Willem Albert is coming home!

DID YOU KNOW

Not only was Willem Albert Scholten an agricultural industrial. On top of that, he was also known as a major investor of the predecessor of the Holland-America Line.

After investing 600.00 Dutch guildens, a ship was named after him as a tribute to his vast investments.

This is where we find a special connection to the Westcord Hotels chain. Both the ss Rotterdam, former flagship of the Holland-America Line, and Hotel New York, former headquarter of the Holland-America Line, are sister hotels of The Market Hotel.
